Now on Sale 2022 Passion Play Tours

In 2020, the Oberammergau Passion Play was postponed for just the fourth time in its nearly 400-year history. But preparations remain underway in order to welcome you in 2022.

We've just released 7 itineraries for 2022 that include the once-a-decade Passion Play in the Bavarian hamlet of Oberammergau. With a wide range of tour itineraries and departures, there is something for every traveler. Whether or not your travelers had originally planned to attend in 2020, we welcome them to join us in 2022 for the event of a lifetime.

Since its first production in 1634, the Passion Play has captivated audiences from around the world. The dramatic retelling of Jesus' life and crucifixion is only performed every ten years. This is your travelers' chance to experience the epic event live and in person in 2022.
